OGDEN SLAUGHTERS THE VIGILANTES OF HELENA

The Helena "Vigilantes" fell to pieces again yesterday and were made to look like amateurs by the Ogden players, who piled up 17 hits, 15 runs and 8 stolen bases. Three of the steals were doubles, one of the Ogden runners scoring in each case. The Cannons also staged two nice double plays and the "Vigilantes" got one, which was about the only thing that was done by them to show that they were in the game at all.

The Cannons seem to thrive on the offerings of southpaw pitchers, as was shown in Monday's game, and, with two of them being offered up for sacrifice again by Manager Garrett, the batting averages of the locals were fattened up to an appreciable extent. From Wells, a new one, they took 14 in 6 innings and got 3 off Wesley, who was sent in by Garrett at that stage out of pity for the pedal extremities of the Ogden runners.

Woolums led in the batting, coming out with 3 hits and 2 runs up, but Murphy was the hero of the day. He batted in 5 runs and scored two additional and caught three flies, two of them by long runs.

"Randy" Ballinger was on the mound for the Cannons and, aside from allowing 5 men to walk, played a good game. He allowed 6 hits and struck out 5 men, in addition to getting 4 assists, 2 hits and 2 runs.

In the first inning, Helena's hopes were dashed by the execution of a double play. Rader fled to Cobb. Ambsry walked and was doubled out with McNeil, Ballinger to Risberg to Woolums.

In the second half, Ellis got a life and went to third on Woolums' hit to left field, the latter being out at second in an attempt to stretch a single into a two bagger. Murphy singled and Ellis scored. Jones went out, Wells to Lussi, Cobb singled, scoring Murphy, and then Risberg went out at first.

In the second inning, Helena scored 1 run and the Cannons staged another double play. Lussi walked. Dean sent out a hot liner that hit Ballinger under the chin and bounded off, the runner reaching first safely. It was thought that "Randy" was injured, but he stuck to the game.

Daschbach reached first and Dean was forced out at second, Risberg to Dowling. Bogart walked and a balk by Ballinger allowed Lussi to score and Daschbach to go to second. The latter was doubled out with Crittenden, Ballinger to Woolums, to Dowling to Rader.

For Ogden, Dowling and Rader fled out. Ballinger then got a single and Ellis sent him to third with a two bagger. Woolums walked and Murphy cleaned the bases with a two bagger. Jones struck out.

Helena was blanked in the third and Ogden made one. Cobb walked. Risberg got a single and went to second on a throw that caught Cobb at third. The out was a very questionable decision. Dowling reached first and Risberg was out on a fielder's choice, Rader to McNeil. Rader singled, advancing Dowling to third. The two then executed a double steal. Dowling scoring and Rader going to second. Ballinger hit a hot grounder to Wells, who made a dandy stop and pegged the runner out at first.

In the fourth, McNeil, Lussi and Dean went out by the "Cannon" route. Ellis, the first Cannon up, was given a life and advanced on Woolums' sacrifice. Murphy was out, Ambsry to Lussi, and Ellis went to third. Jones hit for the initial bag and Ellis scored. Cobb went out, Wells to Lussi.

Neither team progressed in the fifth, but the sixth was a "doings" Rader started it by hitting a fly to Ellis. Ambsry then hit to Jones, who made a clever stop and then pegged the pill away over Woolums' head. On the error, Ambsry went to second, McNeil singled and Ambsry scored. Dean struck out and Daschbach fled out to Murphy.

Then began a comedy. Ballinger singled and advanced on a duplicate hit by Ellis. Woolums sent Ballinger home and Ellis went to third on a single. Murphy hit a sacrifice fly to Daschbach and Ellis beat the throw in to the plate. Jones reached first and Woolums was out on a fielder's choice, Wells to Ambsry. Jones then stole second and Cobb walked.

Risberg scored Jones with a single, which also advanced Cobb to third. Cobb scored a moment later on Ambsry's error. Dowling singled and Risberg romped to third. The two then tried a double steal and got away with it.

Dowling then advanced to third on McNeil's error and scored, while Rader reached first on an error by Rader. Ballinger sent a grounder to Wells and Rader was out at second on a fielder's choice.

Wesley replaced Wells in the seventh and neither side scored. The visitors were also blanked in the eighth and ninth. In the eighth, the Cannons got over two more. Jones reached first on Rader's error and went to third on Cobb's single. Risberg fled to Ambsry and Dowling singled, scoring Jones. The third double steal of the day was then executed, Cobb scoring and Dowling going to second. With Ballinger at bat and the pitcher holding the ball, Dowling stole third. Ballinger was given four balls and on the last one Dowling attempted to steal home and was out by a very narrow margin.

CRACK PLAYER FOR POLO TEAM.

London, May 8.—Baron Wimborne, manager of the English polo team, which has challenged the Meadowbrook club for a match this summer for the international polo trophy held by the Americans, decided today to drop Major Mathew Lannoway No. 10 on the team, for the match game Saturday with Walter S. Buckmaster's four. He will be replaced by Major J. Y. D. Bligham, reputed to be a crack player.

It was announced recently that the challenging teams' ponies would be shipped to the United States May 16 and that the players would sail May 23. Whether these arrangements will be adhered to is uncertain.

RED TONER PITCHES SHUT OUT BALL AT BOISE

Boise, Idaho, May 7.—Pitching no-hit ball up to the ninth inning, "Red" Toner pulled Boise to victory here this afternoon in the third game of the series. Score, Boise 5, Butte 1.

The Irrigators had recovered from their batting slump, finding McCreary for five safe drives, which, added by six errors, brought over their total number of runs.

An error by Macmurdoo and a double in the second gave Boise its first run. Two hits, three errors, three stolen bases and a sacrifice fly gave them four in the third.

It was shut out ball after that. The Ducks could not solve Toner's offerings. Their lone hit was made by Macmurdoo in the ninth. McClelland had fled deep to Bauer in the center field. Jake dropped the ball and McClelland reached third. Macmurdoo burned a clean single between second and short, counting Bauer.

SALT LAKE DEFEATED
IN THE TENTH INNING

At Salt Lake—Murray 11, Salt Lake 4 (10 innings).

At Ogden—Helena 2, Ogden 15.

At Boise—Butte 1, Boise 5.

Salt Lake, May 8.—The Murray infielders gave the greatest exhibition of fast and errorless ball for four innings in yesterday's game that has ever been seen in this town. In the third, sixth, seventh and eighth, Salt Lake had the bases loaded twice with one out and twice with none out, but they were retired without a run.

The run that was made in the sixth came before the base-filling. The final score was 11 to 4 for Murray. Perfect fielding and perfect throwing pulled Murray out of the holes they had dug for themselves, and they surely worked it beautifully. The fans who missed those four innings of real baseball playing missed something worth while.

The fact that Murray broke a tie in the tenth inning, and, with eight runs, won the game with six scores to spare, is secondary to the marvelous work of Blankenship's infield in the four innings referred to.

And, in passing it may be said the credit for that superb showing is due in very large measure to Blankenship himself. Salt Lake people have seen "Blank" in the director's uniform before, but never has he been called upon to display the generalship which he showed yesterday.

His steady influence undoubtedly saved the day for Murray.

Schultz, pitching for the Sea Gulls, showed form for the first time this year, and although he was touched for thirteen hits, it was not by any means his fault that the Salt Lake batsmen didn't push a run across in all their opportunities. Del Crespi was on the wood for Murray. Aside from his tendency to keep himself and his team in the hole all the while, he pitched good ball, and was effective in the pinches.
